A propos de la FIM

FIM (WWW.FIM-LIVE.COM), instance mondiale régissant le sport motocycliste, est une association indépendante rassemblant 98 Fédérations Nationales dans le monde entier. La FIM est reconnue comme la seule autorité compétente en sport motocycliste par le Comité International Olympique (CIO). Parmi les 49 Championnats du Monde FIM, les principales manifestations sont le MotoGP, le Superbike, l'Endurance, le Motocross, le Supercross, le Trial, l'Enduro et le Speedway. La FIM gère aussi des disciplines non-sportives comme le motocyclisme de loisirs, la mobilité, le transport, la sécurité routière et les affaires publiques ainsi que l'environnement. La FIM fut la première fédération sportive internationale à imposer un code environnemental en 1994.
