OPENING OF THE ENDURO EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIP

The first round of the Enduro European Championship was held this weekend in the French track of Boussac.

The first day was held under a light rain in the first part of the race, making the competition more difficult with three special tests of 5 laps. The second part of the day was characterised by cloudy, but dry weather. The second day saw similar weather conditions that caused the reduction of some special test.

Boussac was also the first test for the brand new Team UEM Promotion Enduro, which was without the German rider Arne Weidemann, who got injured before the event and who was substituted by the national French team coach, Frédéric Weill.

In the E1 Junior, the Scottish Neil Chatham experienced for the first time the pressure of an European competition and did not manage to get points, but he showed good capabilities and a potential for improving his performance. In the E2+3 class the Finnish Roni Nikander was among the best riders, achieving a fifth and third position.

The next round of the Enduro European Championship is scheduled on the 26th and 27th of June in Kielce (Poland).
